NEW CONTINUING EDUCATION RULES EFFECTIVE 3/29/2010

The 2010 legislature approved revisions to the administrative rules regarding continuing education requirements for dentists and dental hygienists. A complete copy of these rules may be accessed from this site (see rule 050 and 051).

The revisions limit the number of self-study hours allowed. A maximum of eight (8) hours of self-study will be allowed for dentists, and a maximum of six (6) hours of self-study will be allowed for dental hygienists. No revisions were made to the allowance of volunteer hours (1 credit of CE may be claimed for every 2 hours of verified volunteer dental/dental hygiene practice up to a maximum of 10 credits).

The Board of Dentistry will implement these revisions following the next license renewal date, i.e. after October 1, 2010 for dentists and after April 1, 2011 for dental hygienists.
